

Small Art Music Projects Presents:

2018 INTRO TO INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Award-winning Bay Area composer and performer, Matt Small, will guide parent-kid teams as they explore, learn about, and play on a curated selection of musical instruments from around the world.

Stay for as long (or short) as you want. The open house format allows for each child to engage and/or listen as long as they are so inclined. This flexible timing means the studio may, at times, be quite full. We appreciate your patience should there be a short wait.

- Admission is free and open to the public
- No musical experience necessary
- Simple on site registration required
- Parent or guardian must stay with children at all times. No drop off.
